Other Pay Reminder

You stated that you are supposed to receive a payment that is not wages (for example, vacation pay or severance pay) from one of your employers. The employer has not paid you this money yet. You must report that payment to us when you receive it. If you do not tell us, you might have to pay us back money we already paid you. You might also have to pay penalties. Call the Customer Contact Center when you receive the money.

Payment Methods

The UI Program issues benefit payments either on a Visa® debit card referred to as the Colorado Automated Payment (CAP) Card or by direct deposit into a checking or savings account of your choice.

Colorado Automated Payment Card

Within one week after filing your UI claim, you will receive in the mail your CAP Card and enrollment information in a plain, white envelope from Chase. Carefully read all the CAP Card information you receive.

Direct Deposit

The UI Program automatically deposits benefits to your CAP Card unless you request direct deposit. To select direct deposit, go to www.coworkforce.com and click on Payment Selection. Enter your social security number and UI issued 4-digit personal identification number (PIN) to log on, and then select direct deposit as
